Conner Contemporary Art enthusiastically anticipates exhibiting at Pulse Miami 2008. We invite you to visit our booth to view works by gallery artists:

- > LEO VILLAREAL – the latest dynamic, digital color LED sculptures
- > ERIK SANDBERG – new figural oil glaze paintings on panel
- > GABRIEL DE LA MORA – color photographs from the new series: Ghosts
- > BRANDON MORSE – video of playful, digitally-generated structures
- > KENNY HUNTER – new sculpture + paintings

Recent work will also be on view by gallery artist Dean Kessmann. *gogo art projects artists Nathaniel Rogers, Sabeen Raja and Adam de Boer will present new small scale paintings.

We are also pleased to announce that Leo Villareal's large-scale LED sculpture Horizon(2) has been selected by Pulse Special Projects curator Claire Breukel for exhibition in the courtyard of Pulse Miami.

Preview video available at: <http://www.connercontemporary.com/artists/leo-villareal-horizon-2/?view=video>

Additionally, Leo Villareal will participate in the Financial Times/ CORE breakfast series "Investigating Art – the Changing Landscape" in conversation with Alexander Ross on Wednesday, December 3rd @ 10am. The talk is moderated by Peter Aspden, chief art critic for the Financial Times. A podcast of the discussion will be available on the Conner Contemporary website in late December. RSVP essential. Contact the gallery or Pulse Fair for details.
